The Internet

One of the greatest inventions of our times is the Internet. No doubt, the net has had a big effect on almost every part of our lives. It has changed the way we do business, how we communicate and how we search for information. Many people send documents, buy things, book hotels, reserve tickets or transfer their money via the Internet. Chatting, joining discussion groups, reading articles, downloading music is very popular among young people. Computers have also replaced people in some professions.

- 1, Do you use the Internet? Why? / Why not?
- 2, In your opinion, can be using the Internet sometimes dangerous?
